

Choose Jesus and Live

Man is the only creature on earth
Who knows for certain some day he will die.
Yet instead of enjoying his life as God's given,
He tries to live, forgetting his end.

Many today don't live, they exist,
They simply are striving in vain;
While God offers a destiny for us with purpose.
His Life naturally, Supernaturally offered in love.

The enemy takes the word "live" and perverts it;
Turned backwards it spells "evil," you see.
Life "lived" through his perversion spells "devil."
Life upside down--distorted and disheveled.

"Just give me Jesus," that's my soul cry;
His eternal joy an endless Life-giving spring.
Thief Satan will rob, steal, and destroy.
Only fools attempt living life without God!

By Susan G. McIntosh

(c) 2002

Susan@actsfoundation.com